FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Before the examinations

1. Non-examination Assessment

Debenham High School is committed to ensuring that whenever its staff assess candidates' work for external qualifications, this is done fairly, consistently and in accordance with the awarding body's specification and subject-specific associated documents.

Candidates' work will be marked by staff who have appropriate knowledge, understanding and skill, and who have been trained in this activity. Debenham High School is committed to ensuring that work produced by candidates is authenticated in line with the requirements of the awarding body. Where a set of work is divided between staff, consistency is assured by internal moderation and standardisation.

If a candidate believes this may not have happened in relation to his/her work, he/she may make use of this appeals procedure. If a candidate requests a review of the centre's marking, it must be done before marks are submitted to the awarding body (see pt 2 below). The cost for a review is £30 per assessment.

Appeals Procedure

1. All candidates are informed about the appeals procedure when they start their coursework.
2. Appeals should be made as early as possible and no later than 09 April (internally assessment coursework is due with the examinationboards by the end of the first week in may each year).
3. Appeals must be made in writing by the candidate's parent/carer to the Headteacher (See Appendix 1). Either the Headteacher or a senior member of staff will conduct the investigation. The senior member of staff will not have had any involvement in the internal assessment process for that subject.
4. The purpose of the appeal will be to decide whether the process used for the internal assessment conformed to the awarding body's specification and subject specific associated documents.
5. The appellant will be informed in writing of the outcome of the appeal, including any relevant correspondence with the awarding body, and any changes made to internal assessment procedures.
6. A written record of the appeal will be kept and made available to the awarding body at their request. Should the appeal bring any significant irregularity to light, the awarding body will be informed.
7. Should the student be dissatisfied with the written response, he/she has right of appeal to the Hearing and Pupil Discipline Committee of the Governors of the school.

After candidates' work has been internally assessed it is moderated by the awarding body to ensure consistency between examinationcentres. The moderation process can lead to mark changes. This process is outside the control of Debenham High School and is not covered by this procedure.

See full GCSE Non-examination Assessment Policy on school website (in Policies section).

2. Why are Mocks run as though they were real GCSE examinations?

This is your chance to practise for the real GCSE examinations, bringing the correct pens and other equipment and learning how to follow the JCQ regulations in full – see the Notices to Candidates at the back of this handbook.

NB! Your Mock Examination results will be used to predict your final GCSE grade.

Your Predicted Grade will be passed on to the Sixth Form/College you choose to apply for.

It will also be used by the Examination Board if you need Special Consideration (see Item 33).

3. What is my Candidate number?

Each candidate has a four-digit candidate number which is used by the Examination Boards to identify you. You must write it on all your examination papers and coursework.

Please also write your candidate number on the front of this booklet.

Your candidate number forms part of your Unique Candidate Identifier or UCI (12 numbers and 1 letter) which is shown on the top of your Individual Candidate Timetable. This number begins with the Centre Number where you first took GCSEs. If you go to Sixth Form or College you will need your UCI for examinations there.

4. When will I get my personal timetable for the summer examinations?

You will be given your summer examination timetable just after the February half term break. Meanwhile, you may find it useful to highlight your subjects on the general timetable in this handbook. The provisional timetable is also published on the school's website and there is a copy on the board outside the Exams Office.

5. Why do I need to check the details on my Individual Candidate Timetable?

- Have you been entered for all the correct examinations and at the correct tier?
- Is your name spelt correctly?
- Has your date of birth been entered correctly?

If the name or date of birth on your examination certificates does not match your birth certificate, it could cause you problems if you are asked to show them to your college/university or a potential employer.

6. What do I do if there is a clash on my timetable?

In some cases, candidates will have two subjects which are timetabled at the same time by the examination boards. You will normally sit one paper, followed by a 20-minute break before sitting the second paper. During the break you will be supervised and must not have any communication with other candidates. You may bring snacks to eat during the break. Correct times should be on your Individual Candidate Timetable. If in doubt, please see Mrs Hughes in the Exams Office.

7. Why does school need an up-to-date contact number for me?

GCSEs are national examinations which are very carefully regulated. Each examination takes place at the same time throughout England and Wales, as well as abroad. We need to be able to contact you if you are not in school when you should be sitting an examination.

8. What are Linear Examinations?

Linear means that ALL examination papers are to be taken at the end of the course.

9. GCSE Re-takes

If you do not gain a Grade 4 in English and Mathematics, GCSE re-sits can be taken in November or the following May/June. Please check with your post-16 institute as to when they recommend you re-sit. You will have to re-sit these subjects at Sixth Form or College.

10. How will I know if my original timetable has changed?

If there is any change whatsoever to your original examination timetable, you will be issued with a new Individual Candidate Timetable, with the change clearly marked. In addition, we will email (or write to) your parent/carer to let them know that you have a new timetable.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you attend exams at the correct time.

11. I am entitled to extra time. How will this affect the way I take my examinations?

Some pupils receive an allowance of 25% extra time. Where possible, such candidates will be seated together, or in a separate room, to minimise disturbance from other candidates who finish earlier. The invigilators will give you a slip showing your finish time.

12. What about Data Protection – My personal details?

The Examination Boards are all 'data controllers' under the Data Protection Act 1998. See Data Protection Policy on the school website.

During the examinations

13. Can I come into school after Study Leave starts even if I don't have an examination?

During the Study Leave period you must either be in an examination, in a scheduled revision session or in the designated room for quiet revision. This room will always be supervised by a teacher. You must sign in when you arrive and you must leave the school site as soon as you have signed out.

14. Will there be any specific revision sessions after Study Leave starts?

You will be given details of any special revision sessions before the start of Study Leave. There will be a copy on the board outside the Exams Office.

15. Must I wear school uniform during the exams?

Whenever you come into school you must wear full school uniform.

16. Can I get lunch at school?

If you are in school all day, you may have lunch in the dining hall in the usual way, or bring a packed lunch. Be aware of the start time of afternoon examinations.

17. Invigilators

The school employs external invigilators to conduct the examinations. Pupils are expected to behave in a respectful manner towards the invigilators and follow their instructions at all times.

Invigilators are in the examination rooms to supervise the conduct of the examination.

They will distribute and collect the examination papers, tell you when to start and finish the examination, hand out extra writing paper if required, and deal with any problems that occur during the examination; for example if a candidate is feeling ill or needs to go to the toilet.

Invigilators cannot discuss the examination paper with you or explain the questions.

Any pupil who is disruptive or behaves in an unacceptable manner, will be removed from the examination room by an invigilator and taken to a member of the Senior Leadership Team.

18. What if I am ill or have an accident before the examination?

Inform the school immediately so that we can help or advise you. For instance, if you have an injury which makes you unable to write, it may be possible to provide you with a scribe.

You must obtain medical evidence (from your GP or hospital) if you wish the school to make an appeal for Special Consideration on your behalf (see Item 33).

19. What time must I arrive for an examination?

You must arrive in school at least 20 minutes before the start time so that you can sign in, hand in any phones/Smart watches/other valuables for safekeeping and leave everything (except your examination equipment) where directed. Please wait quietly outside the examination room until you are invited to enter by the Invigilators or a member of the Senior Leadership Team. Please also leave quietly once the examination is over as there may still be students writing in separate rooms and classes will may be taking place.

20. What time do examinations start?

Mock Exams usually start at 9.15am or 1.40pm. Afternoon exams lasting 2 hours or more will start at 1.30pm. GCSE Exam times still to be finalised.

PLEASE CHECK your Individual Candidate Timetable and the notice board outside the Exams Office.

21. What are 'examination conditions'?

As soon as you enter the examination room there must be complete silence. You must not speak, distract or communicate with other candidates in any way. You must face the front at all times.

If you need anything, you must put up your hand and wait for an invigilator to come to you. This includes if you drop any of your equipment on the floor.

22. What equipment should I take into the examination room?

ALL EXAMINATIONS:

Transparent pencil case or clear plastic bag

Black ballpoint pen – NO blue pens and NO gel/liquid pens. Examination papers are scanned into an electronic form and blue ink and gel pens do not scan reliably.

Pencil, sharpener and rubber eraser – NO correction fluid/tape or pens

Ruler with cm and mm

Highlighters must not be used in your answers, but may be used on question papers.

SCIENCE AND MATHS EXAMINATIONS: Scientific calculator - NO instructions or lid.

DESIGN TECHNOLOGY EXAMINATIONS: Coloured pencils are required.

A water bottle is allowed but the label must be removed.

You are responsible for providing your own equipment for examinations.

You must not lend equipment or attempt to borrow it from another candidate in the examination room.

Only material listed on the question paper is allowed in the examination room.

23. What am I NOT allowed to take into the examination room?

Food, notes, books, papers, calculator case or lid, calculator instruction leaflets, correction fluid, tape or pen, reading pens, instruments which can capture a digital image, electronic devices (iPods, MP3/4 players, smart watches or wrist watches which have a data storage device or digital facilities), mobile phones - even if switched off.

If you are found to have anything with you that is not allowed, even if you did not intend to use it, this will be reported to the Examination Board. The normal practice in these circumstances is to disqualify the candidate from the paper or the subject.

24. What if I think I have the wrong paper?

Invigilators will ask you to check before the examination starts. If you think something is wrong, put your hand up and tell the invigilator immediately.

25. What if I forget my Candidate Number?

Your Candidate Number is printed on the laminated name card which is placed on your desk for every examination. You must write your name and number exactly as it appears on the card. Legal names are used for examinations, not 'known-as' names.

26. What if I forget the school Centre Number?

The Centre Number is 19115. It will be clearly displayed in the examination rooms.

27. How do I know how long the examination is?

The length of the examination is shown in minutes on your individual timetable under the heading 'duration'. It is also shown on the question paper. Invigilators will tell you when to start and finish the examination. They will display the start and finish times of the examination on a board at the front of the examination room. There will be a clock in all examination rooms.

Candidates who are entitled to extra time will be given a note on their desk showing their finish time.

28. What if I think there is an error on the paper?

If the awarding body has not issued an erratum notice, then the instruction is for candidates to answer the question as printed. (If an erratum notice has been issued, it will be read out to candidates before the examination begins).

29. Can I go to the toilet during the examination?

It is strongly advised that you go to the toilet before entering the examination room. You may go to the toilet during the examination only if it is absolutely necessary.

30. What if I feel ill during the examination?

Put your hand up and an invigilator will assist you. You should always inform an invigilator if you feel ill before or during an exam. If you think this may have affected your performance you may be eligible for Special Consideration (see Item 33).

31. What if I finish the examination early?

You will not be allowed to leave an examination room early. If you are sure that you have finished the paper, use any time remaining to read over your answers, check the examination instructions and check that you have completed your details correctly.

You must sit quietly, facing the front. Do not turn round or look about the room, make any noise or distract other candidates in any way.

32. What happens at the end of the examination?

The invigilator will announce when you have 5 minutes left and when to stop writing. You must stop writing IMMEDIATELY and remain silent, facing the front. Remember that you are still under examination conditions (see Item 21) until you have left the room.

Invigilators will collect all question papers, answer booklets and additional paper.

Remember to cross out any rough work.

If you have used more than one answer book or loose sheets of paper, please make sure that you have put your name and candidate ID number on these.

Remain seated, in silence, until you are instructed to leave the examination room.

Please leave the room in silence and show consideration for other candidates who may still be working.

33. What is Special Consideration?

Special Consideration is an adjustment to the marks of a candidate who is eligible for consideration. The allowance for Special Consideration is from 0% (consideration given but addition of marks considered inappropriate) to 5% (reserved for exceptional cases).

Parents should be aware that any adjustment is likely to be small and no feedback is provided by the examination board concerned.

Candidates will only be eligible for Special Consideration if they have been fully prepared for the whole course but their performance in the examination or in the production of coursework is affected by adverse circumstances beyond their control. Examples of such circumstances may be illness, accident or injury, bereavement, domestic crisis.

The Exams Officer must be informed immediately so that the necessary paperwork can be completed. You will be required to provide evidence to support the application.

34. If I am late, can I still sit the examination?

You should get to school as quickly as possible and report to Reception. If it is still possible for you to sit the examination, a member of staff will escort you to the examination room. You must not enter an examination room without permission after an examination has begun.

If you arrive very late, the school must inform the Examination Board, giving the reason and evidence for your lateness. Although you will still be allowed to write your examination, the Board may decide not to accept your work.

35. If I miss the examination can I take it on another day?

No. Timetables are regulated by the Examination Boards and you must attend on the given date and time. If you miss an examination without good reason you will be charged the entry fee.

36. What is a Contingency Day?

In the highly unlikely event that there is national disruption to a day of examinations in summer 2020, the awarding bodies will liaise with the qualification regulators and the DfE to agree the most appropriate option for managing the impact. As a last resort the affected examinations will be rescheduled.

Although every effort would be taken to keep the impact to a minimum, it is possible that there could be more than one timetable date affected following the disruption.

Centres will be alerted if it was agreed to reschedule the examinations and the affected candidates will be expected to make themselves available in such circumstances. The decision regarding the re-scheduling of examinations will always rest with the awarding body. The centre must conduct the examination on the scheduled date unless instructed to do otherwise by the awarding body.

Where candidates choose not to be available for the rescheduled examination(s) for reasons other than those traditionally covered by special consideration, they will not be eligible for enhanced grading arrangements.

In Summer 2020 the last examination for DHS students is provisionally 12 June 2020. The Contingency Day is 24 June 2020.

37. What happens if there is a fire alarm during an examination?

If the fire alarm sounds during an examination the invigilators will instruct you on what to do. Do not panic. Leave everything on your desk. If you have to evacuate the room, you will be asked to leave in silence and in the order in which you are sitting. You will be escorted to a designated assembly point. You must not attempt to communicate with anyone else during the evacuation. When you return to the examination room, do not start writing until the invigilator tells you to. You will be allowed the full working time for the examination (where possible) and a report will be sent to the Examination Board with details of the incident.

After the examinations

38. How do I get my results for the Summer Term examinations?

Year 11s may collect results on Thursday 20 August at school from 10.00 until 12.00.

If you wish any other person (including family members) to collect your results on your behalf, you must give your written authorisation to school before results day.

Results are never given over the telephone. If you are away on results day, Mrs Hughes can e-mail your results to you, provided that arrangements have been made in advance.

Any Year 11 results not collected from school on 20 August will be posted second class to your home address that evening, unless you provide us with a different address beforehand.

39. What do I do if I have not achieved the grades I need for Sixth Form/College?

Contact your chosen Sixth Form college immediately and explain your situation. They will tell you if you are still eligible for admission.

If you feel strongly that it is necessary to make an enquiry about your result, you should first contact Mrs Hughes or a member of the Senior Leadership Team. Review of marking requests and a signed Candidate Consent form must be submitted as soon as possible, and no later than Thursday 10 September 2020.

In order to have a paper reviewed, there is a fee which you would be required to pay. In September 2019, this was between £37.55 and £65, depending on the Examination Board.

Please be aware that there is a chance that your mark could go up, stay the same, or even go down. If your unit or GCSE grade is changed, the fee will be refunded.

40. When will I get my Certificates?

A Year 12 Commemorative Assembly will take place in school one evening in early November. The letter in your results envelope will give you the exact date and time. This is a formal evening; your parents/carers may attend and there will be a guest speaker. There will be an opportunity at this evening to collect your coursework and meet up with friends.

If are unable to attend Commemorative Assembly please contact Mrs Hughes to arrange a suitable time to collect your certificates and coursework from the school office. Certificates will not be given to anyone other than the candidate without the candidate's written authorisation.

Schools are only obliged to keep certificates for a period of one year after issue. If candidates do not collect their certificates within this time (or if they lose their certificates) they can only be replaced by direct application to the appropriate Examination Boards. This will require proof of identity (such as a birth certificate or driving licence) and a fee per Examination Board (minimum £43). You are therefore urged to collect your certificates on Commemorative Assembly Evening or as soon as possible thereafter, and to keep them somewhere safe.

I hope that you have been able to find the answer to your questions in this handbook.

Please contact Mrs Hughes in the Examinations Office if you or your parents have any other queries about examination procedures at any time before, during or after the examinations.

This notice has been produced on behalf of:
AQA, CCEA, OCR, Pearson and WJEC
Information for candidates: non-examination assessments

This document tells you about some things that you must and must not do when you are completing your work.

When you submit your work for marking, the awarding body will normally require you to sign an authentication statement confirming that you have read and followed these regulations.

If there is anything that you do not understand, you must ask your teacher.

Preparing your work – good practice

If you receive help and guidance from someone other than your teacher, you must tell your teacher who will then record the nature of the assistance given to you.

If you worked as part of a group on an assignment, for example undertaking field research, you must each write up your own account of the assignment. Even if the data you have is the same, you must describe in your own words how that data was obtained and you must independently draw your own conclusions from the data.

You must meet the deadlines that your teacher gives you. Remember - your teachers are there to guide you. Although they cannot give you direct assistance, they can help you to sort out any problems before it is too late.

Take care of your work and keep it safe. Do not leave it lying around where your classmates can find it. You must always keep your work secure and confidential whilst you are preparing it; do not share it with your classmates. If it is stored on the computer network, keep your password secure. Collect all copies from the printer and destroy those you do not need.

Do not be tempted to use pre-prepared on-line solutions — this is cheating. Electronic tools used by awarding bodies can detect this sort of copying.

You must not write inappropriate, offensive or obscene material.

Research and using references

In some subjects you will have an opportunity to do some independent research into a topic.

The research you do may involve looking for information in published sources such as textbooks, encyclopedias, journals, TV, radio and on the internet.

Using information from published sources (including the internet) as the basis for your assignment is a good way to demonstrate your knowledge and understanding of a subject. You must take care how you use this material though - you cannot copy it and claim it as your own work.

The regulations state that:

the work which you submit for assessment must be your own;

you must not copy from someone else or allow another candidate to copy from you.

You may be required to include a bibliography at the end of your piece of written work. Your teacher will tell you whether a bibliography is necessary. Where required, your bibliography must list the full details of publications you have used in your research, even where these are not directly referred to, for example: Curran, J. Mass Media and Society (Hodder Arnold, 2005).

If you copy the words or ideas of others and do not show your sources in references and a bibliography, this will be considered as cheating.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism involves taking someone else's words, thoughts or ideas and trying to pass them off as your own.

It is a form of cheating which is taken very seriously.

Do not think you will not be caught; there are many ways to detect plagiarism.

- Markers can spot changes in the style of writing and use of language.
- Markers are highly experienced subject specialists who are very familiar with work on the topic concerned — they may have read or seen the source you are using, or even marked the work you have copied from!
- Internet search engines and specialised computer software can be used to match phrases or pieces of text with original sources and to detect changes in the grammar and style of writing or punctuation.

Penalties for breaking the regulations

If your work is submitted and it is discovered that you have broken the regulations, one of the following penalties will be applied:

- the piece of work will be awarded zero marks;
- you will be disqualified from that component for the examination series in question;
- you will be disqualified from the whole subject for that examination series;
- you will be disqualified from all subjects and barred from entering again for a period of time.

The awarding body will decide which penalty is appropriate.

REMEMBER – IT'S YOUR QUALIFICATION SO IT NEEDS TO BE YOUR OWN WORK

Note: Instructions regarding exam clashes will be released to the candidates affected in April 2020

Contingency Day: 24 June 2020 In the unlikely event of a national disruption to a day of exams, the affected exam(s) may need to be rescheduled. Every effort will be taken to minimise the impact but it is possible that there could be more than one timetable date affected, up to & including the contingency day on 24 June 2020. Where candidates choose not to be available for the rescheduled exam(s) for reasons other than those traditionally covered by special consideration, they will not be eligible for enhanced grading arrangements. v1 19/9/19
